INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Road Runners Club of America

We have audited the statements of financial position of the Road Runners Club of America (RRCA), a nonprofit organization, as of December 31, 2010 and 2009 and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the RRCA's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Road Runners Club of America at December 31, 2010 and 2009 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Road Runners Club of America (RRCA) is a non-stock, not-for-profit Virginia corporation whose principal purpose is to promote and encourage long distance running as a competitive sport and as a means of healthy exercise. The Organization also provides information on running through newsletters, booklets, clinics, meetings, handbooks, and educational programs, and acts to promote and conduct races and other running activities through its member clubs.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed in the preparation of these financial statements:

- (a). Financial Statement Presentation - The Organization reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.
- (b). Net Assets - Unrestricted net assets include general operating net assets and board designated funds. The board designated funds consist of funds that can be used as determined by the Board. The board designated fund was $206,370 and $181,370 at December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively. Temporarily restricted net assets consist of contributions with donor-imposed purpose restrictions. Temporarily restricted net assets were released from restriction during the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009 by meeting purpose restrictions imposed by the donor. Permanently restricted net assets consist of contributions with requirements that the principal be invested in perpetuity and only the income expended for designated purposes.
- (c). Contributions - The Organization accounts for contributions as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions are reported as an increase in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending on the nature of the restriction. When a restriction is satisfied or expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.
- (d). Income Tax Status - RRCA is exempt from the payment of income taxes on its exempt activities under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). RRCA is required to pay federal and state taxes on net income generated from unrelated business activities. The Organization's unrelated business activities include advertising, sponsorships, member insurance revenues, and royalties. There was no income tax expense for the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009.

The Organization files its tax returns as prescribed by the tax laws of the jurisdictions in which it operates. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to examinations by tax authorities for years prior to 2008.

- (e). Cash and Cash Equivalents - For purposes of the statement of cash flows the Organization considers substantially all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. Short-term, highly liquid investments purchased for its investment accounts and handled by investment managers are treated as investments rather than cash equivalents.
- (f). Accounts Receivable - Receivables are carried at their estimated collectible amounts and are periodically evaluated for collectibility. All accounts receivable at December 31, 2010 and 2009 are considered collectible.

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: Continued

- (g). Investments - All investments in debt and equity securities are carried at fair value, with gains and losses included in a statement of activities. Gains and losses on investments reflected in the accompanying statement of activities include gains and losses realized upon sales and unrealized gains and losses resulting from fluctuations in market values of investments.
- (h). Property and Equipment - Furniture, fixtures, and equipment purchases of $500 or more are recorded at cost and are depreciated on the straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the remaining term of the office lease.
- (i). Deferred Revenue - Membership dues and certain program revenue received in advance are deferred and recognized as revenue in the year in which they are earned.
- (j). Membership Dues and Fees - Membership dues and fees include an allocable portion of amounts billed to member clubs as insurance program revenues since such revenues are intended to support the exempt purpose programs of RRCA as well as the insurance program costs.
- (k). Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.
- (l). Functional expenses - The cost of providing various program and supporting services have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of functional expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.
- (m). Concentration of Credit Risk - Financial instruments which potentially subject the Organization to concentrations of credit risk consist of a demand deposit account with a high credit quality financial institution. At times, such deposits may be in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance.
- (n). Prior Year Presentation - Certain amounts have been reclassified in the prior year presentation to conform to the current year presentation.

	$ 715,492	$ -	$ -	$ 715,492

Investments were recorded at fair value as of December 31, 2010 and 2009 based on the following level of hierarchy. Level 1 inputs include quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets. Level 2 inputs include quoted market prices for similar assets in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets in markets where there is not sufficient activity, and or where price quotations vary substantially either over time or among market makers, or where little information is released publicly. Level 3 inputs are used to measure fair value to the extent that observable inputs are not available, thereby allowing for situations where there is little, if any, observable market activity for the asset at the measurement date.

Investment management fees of $4,826 and $4,562 were netted with investment income for the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

NOTE 7 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Events that occur after the balance sheet date but before the financial statements were available to be issued must be evaluated for recognition or disclosure. The effects of subsequent events that provide evidence about conditions that existed at the balance sheet date are recognized in the accompanying financial statements. Subsequent events which existed after the balance sheet date, require disclosure in the accompanying notes. Management evaluated the activity of the Organization through May 2, 2011, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and concluded that no subsequent events have occurred that would require recognition in the financial statements or disclosure in the notes to the financial statements.
